GREENEVILLE.

The many friends of Rev. P. J. Bohanan, former pastor of St. Andrew's church in Greenville, will be pleased to hear of his appointment as dean of Trinity Cathedral, Baltimore, Maryland. A Maryland newspaper says the following about the appointment: "The first step toward strengthening the diocese of Baltimore was evidenced last night by the arrival of the Rev. P. J. Bohanan, who is to be dean of Trinity Cathedral, Baltimore. Bohanan has mapped out a program which he carried out with a vigor and more influential church in this section of the state, it is believed."

The Rev. Mr. Bohanan and his wife moved from Washington and their families followed them. As for tonight was his plans for the future were, the new pastor stated that this was his first visit to the eastern shore and he could say nothing more than he was ready to help where it was needed, that was the main problem to solve and would require a great deal of work. For this reason he said he accepted the bishop's invitation.

For the last three years the Rev. Mr. Bohanan has served in the diocese of Washington, and for twelve years previously to this was pastor of St. Andrew's church, Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Carpenter and family of Fourth street are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Carpenter of Providence and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. La Rose and son, Harry, of Fifth street are spending the holidays with relatives in Plainfield.

TAFTVILLE.

Charles McSheffery of Boston, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McSheffery.

Edwin Pollard of Boston, was a visitor at the home of his father, William Pollard of South Plain street, over Thanksgiving.

Quite a few of the villagers' sons and daughters who are employed out of town or attending school came home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Hunters who thought that they would get in a good day of sport yesterday were sadly disappointed by having it snow.

A number of basketball fans journeyed to Danielson last evening to see the game between Danielson and the Williamstown K. C. C.

Rodrick Mosher who recently enlisted in the U. S. army was home over the holiday. He has been transferred from Springfield to Fort Adams, R. I.

Some of the younger set attended dances given in Greenville and Norwich Wednesday evening.

While you sleep

Take one or two Cascarets occasionally to keep your liver and bowels active. When bilious, constipated, headache, unstrung or for a cold, upset stomach, or bad breath, nothing acts so nicely as Cascarets. Children love them too. 10, 25, 50 cents.

BIGGEST REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN STATE

Census of the vote of the state of Connecticut by the official representatives shows the republican victory in the national and state elections of greater size than was ever recorded in this state.

The plurality of Senator Warren G. Harding, the republican presidential candidate, over James M. Cox, the democratic nominee, was shown to be 185,477.

The total vote of Frank B. Brandegee, the republican candidate for United States senator, was 218,742, while Augustus Longman, his democratic opponent, received but 121,624. Brandegee's plurality is $5,168.

The plurality of Everett Lake, the republican candidate for governor, over Rollin U. Tyler, the democratic candidate, is 116,689, not counting 1817 votes for Tyler on the prohibition ticket.

In the Second Congressional district Richard P. Freeman had a plurality of 18,564 over the democratic nominee, Thomas H. Murray. Both candidates are residents of New London.

The presidential electors on the republican ticket met and cast their vote for Warren G. Harding for president. The vote will be forwarded to Washington by the state secretary.
